

THE KENNEALLY FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

BACKGROUND

The Kenneally Family Scholarship was established on June 30, 2010 by Terrence '67 and Susan Cejka '67 Kenneally and by their son Sean Kenneally, a member of the Class of 1987. The Kenneally family has long supported Holy Name High School. Both Terrence and Sean, along with Terrence's daughter Erin Kenneally '89, are members of the Holy Name High School Hall of Fame. They are excited to be able to fund this scholarship to provide the opportunity for a needy student to continue his/her education at Holy Name.

The primary funding of the Kenneally Family Scholarship was made by Terrence Kenneally '67 and Sean Kenneally '87. Future funding of the scholarship will be from the annual donations of Terrence Kenneally and Sean Kenneally, from other members of the Kenneally family, from friends and classmates, and from the interest earned on the balance of funds.

The number of grants, as well as the amount given, will vary each year.
